Each Advent season, we prepare to welcome Jesus into the inns and stables of our hearts. But Jesus' coming wasn't welcomed by everyone with choirs of angels. For St. Joseph, the first coming of Jesus was a bit more complicated. "When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit." For Joseph, opening his heart (and home) to Jesus meant, at best, appearing to all the world like a man who had impregnated his wife out of wedlock. At worst, he appeared a cuckold, raising the child of another man. God doesn't always appear the way we expect.

For some of us, the birth of Christ is a bit relationally complicated. Perhaps over the past few months, a loved one has died. This Christmas, you're taking it upon yourself to keep up the traditions and hold the family together. Welcoming Jesus means welcoming grief. Perhaps it's a difficult relative (or two or three) and it's all you can do to bite your tongue and swallow your pride while they're under your roof. Welcoming Jesus means welcoming strife, discord, and tension.

Yet "do not be afraid," the angel says. Do not be afraid. Why? Because we celebrate the birth of "Emmanuel, which means 'God is with us.'" Before Jesus' earthly ministry would begin, Jesus would lose his father, Joseph. God is with us in our grief. Wherever Jesus went, he stirred up controversy and faced down challenging personalities. God is with us in our stress. The trick is, like Joseph, to allow supernatural grace to prevail. Joseph was a good man, filled with natural virtue in that he didn't want to "expose [Mary] to shame." Yet he was prepared to "divorce her quietly" all the same. Our natural abilities only take us so far. Where is receiving Jesus complicated this Christmas season? Are you relying on your own strength to get you through, or are you truly ready to accept the grace of Emmanuel, God with us?

complete trust in the Lord without expecting anything in return. Striving to put God first in all things and follow Him wherever He may lead us. As we prepare for the birth of our Lord, pray for the strength and courage to be a model of discipleship, just as Joseph was.

K of C Council 9282 Corner: On behalf of our Knights Council 9282 here at St. Stephen, I want to wish everyone at St. Stephen a blessed and Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year. 2019 was a great year to be a Knight and a member of Council 9282. We accomplished many things. Through the generosity of our Catholic community at St. Stephen, we were able to collect record amounts of food for the Mount Juliet Help Center. We raised thousands of dollars for many charitable organizations in Middle, TN. We worked thousands of service hours for our parish and community. Through a number of programs, we worked to strengthen the Catholic faith of men in our Council and their families. We also honored our Veterans and First Responders and helped support vocations and our Seminarians. There is something for every man, to help build a stronger faith. We want to also invite all Catholic Men of St. Stephen, 18 years and older to come join us in 2020. You can get more information online at kofc.org, or look for a Member of our Council wearing a blue name tag after Mass. Roch Wegenka – Grand Knight, Council 9282
