Grace and sin, belief and unbelief, good and evil all exist together. While we wrestle with these two dimensions of reality inwardly, they are also witnessed in the actions and words of others. Many, all too often, beat themselves up because of their sin. We are also all too quick to pass judgment on others whom we perceive to be in error and walking down a wrong path. God does not make rash judgments, nor should we. Patience is the order of the day as is an understanding that God is ultimately the caller of the shots.

Our faith tells us that while God allows the wheat and the weeds to coexist, the wheat will always triumph. As long as we can cultivate even a little faith and a small measure of desire for God, He can produce abundant blessings and good things. Even when the weeds seem to have triumphed, there still may be a small measure of faith remaining that can be cultivated and grown. It doesn't take much! Unless a person totally allows the weeds to reign, there is always to be found at least a small measure of faith, good, light, and love. With even this small portion, God can produce abundant growth.

Admittedly, it is easy to give into the weeds, and they grow very quickly. Any gardener knows this to be true. Sometimes, the weeds even seem more attractive and vibrant. Dealing with weeds can quickly become a losing battle, and they can look healthier and grow faster than the very plants we are trying to protect. It's easy to give into them and let them win. While God will deal with all things in due time, we are responsible for keeping things in check in the short term. It is our task to keep our eyes fixed on God's presence and mercy. We are asked to avoid judgment. And, it is not our responsibility to deal with the weeds in someone else's garden, only our own. One garden is enough responsibility for anyone.

Weeds have power. We have to realize this. While they can appear attractive and healthy, they can quickly choke us off from God's presence. Our task is one of maintenance and cultivating a desire for God. Even the smallest kernel of faith can grow into something wonderful. In God's time, the eternal harvest will come, and we will no longer have to worry about the weeds

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom." (Matthew 13:24, 37-38) As children of God, we are all "good seeds." We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God's plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others, and share our financial gifts to help build God's kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow "good seeds" on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

PARISH HIGHLIGHTS

In a letter dated June 24, Bishop Spalding extended the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days through August 3. Go to the diocese website (www.dioceseofnashville.com) to view the letter from the Bishop. Watch St. Stephen's website and Facebook for more up-to-date information as it becomes available.

From Fr. Pat: "On Sunday you can join with us on Facebook for Mass starting at 8:30am. Once it's up, it's up, so join us at your convenience. I'd encourage you not to do so in isolation but to watch at a time when everyone in your household can pray together, sing together and make your responses during the Mass together." Anyone over the age of 65 or anyone who is worried that attending Mass would add undue stress or jeopardize their health or the health of a person with whom they live are encouraged to remain at home and live stream the Mass at their convenience.

We have an additional Mass each weekday if you'd like to attend during the week (Fr Pat says "Think of it as every day is Sunday."): Monday at 8am and 12pm; Tuesday at 8am and 6:30pm; Wednesday at 8am and 12pm; Thursday at 8am and 6:30pm; and Friday at 8am and 12pm.

Please wear a face mask and follow the instructions of the ushers for seating when you attend Mass.

ALL non-liturgical events, including small faith meetings, have been cancelled at St. Stephen until groups of more than 10 can meet. Visit the Church's Facebook page and website (www.saintstephencommunity.org) for the latest parish news, photos and lots of other great resources.

St. Stephen Catholic Community Presents Catholics Returning Home

If you have been away from the Catholic Church welcome back home! We miss you! If you have a relative, friend, neighbor or co-worker who has been away from the Church, we need your help, please invite them back. RCIA for adults is now holding summer online "Zoom" sessions. The focus for this summer will be on "The Ten Commandments." All are invited and are welcome to participate. The sessions are free. Online sessions meet every Sunday morning, from 10am to 10:30am. Please email Scott Goudeau for more information, or to sign up. sgoudeau@ssccohtn.org

Prayer Cards for Students: If you have been praying for a student this school year, thank you so much! It is time to send our notes to church for distribution to the students. The original envelope you were given is addressed for the purpose of sending your note. Put your note in the envelope, put a stamp on it and drop it in the mail. Your attention to this last step of writing a short note of support and encouragement is appreciated.

Prison Ministry Rosary: We are asking you to pray from home the Wednesday Rosary for the incarcerated at 5:30pm.

Bishops Annual Appeal for Ministries: As a diocese, we are working towards our greater goal for the 2020 Bishop's Annual Appeal for Ministries. K of C Council 9282 Corner: The Tennessee State Council held their annual Kickoff meeting for the Fraternal Year 2021 that began July 1. Many new and revised initiatives were announced. We will be working on many of those initiatives throughout this new year. The highlight of the Kickoff meeting was the announcement of the Knight of the Year for Tennessee 2020. We are pleased to report that the 2020 Knight of the Year is our own Deacon Steve Molnar. Deacon Steve received this honor in a review of outstanding Knights from across Tennessee. Please congratulate Steve when you see him, or send him a message, email or Facebook post. As always, please join us for the rosary every Monday evening at 6pm via Zoom. If you need to login, please send me an email (chiphgk9282@gmail.com). Chip Harris, Grand Knight, Council 9282

From the Pro-Life Committee of the Ladies

Auxiliary: Pregnant and parenting moms in need are in our parishes and neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be "islands of mercy in the midst of a sea of indifference." Everyone in the parish community should know where to refer a pregnant woman in need.
